RE: SEC v. Telegram, et al., No. 19-cv-9439(PKC) (S.D.N.Y.)

Dear Judge Castel:

We represent defendants Telegram Group Inc. and TON Issuer (collectively, "Defendants") in the above-referenced action. We write to request the Court's approval, pursuant to Rule 4.D of Your Honor's Individual Practices, of the agreement with respect to the page limits for the briefs each party is scheduled to file on Monday, January 10, 2020, pursuant to the Court's Order (ECF No. 51).

Specifically, Defendants request permission to file a single, combined brief not to exceed 50 pages for Defendants' memoranda of law (1) in support of their motion for summary judgment, and (2) in opposition to Plaintiff's motion for a preliminary injunction, which Defendants currently intend to file on January 13, 2020, per the Court's Order (ECF No. 51).

Similarly, Plaintiff requests permission to file a single, combined brief not to exceed 50 pages for Plaintiff's memoranda of law (1) in support of its motion for summary judgment, and (2) in support of its motion to strike.

We submit that the combined briefing will more efficiently allow the parties to address the legal issues presented by their motions and will likely result in fewer overall pages than if individual briefs were filed with respect to each motion.

Respectfully submitted,
